

Joint CITES-CMS African Carnivores Initiative

Restoring Viable and Ecologically Functional African Carnivores

Introductory remarks on the Joint CITES-CMS African Carnivores Initiative: Restoring Viable and Ecologically Functional African Carnivores (Ivonne Higuero, CITES Secretary-General (TBC); Amy Fraenkel, CMS Executive Secretary)

Introduction to the Convention on Migratory Species (CMS), the Joint CITES-CMS African Carnivores Initiative, and its Programme of Work (Clara Nobbe, CMS Secretariat)

CITES Perspectives on the Programme of Work of the Joint CITES-CMS African Carnivores Initiative (David Morgan, CITES Secretariat (TBC))

Collaborations with the IUCN and the IUCN SOS African Wildlife Initiative (Richard Jenkins, IUCN)

Contributions to and synergies of the WWF-Panthera “Living with Big Cats” Initiative and the Joint CITES-CMS African Carnivores Initiative (Andrew McVey, WWF)

National perspectives on how the Joint CITES-CMS African Carnivores Initiative can support carnivore conservation at national level, from

- » Kenya (Dr Patrick Omondi, Kenya Wildlife Services)
- » Zimbabwe (Rose Mandisodza, Zimbabwe Parks & Wildlife Management Authorities)

Canal 2/Salon 2
(Committee II room)
Thursday, 17 Nov 2022
17:15-19:00 hrs

